

Division of Student Affairs 2011-2012 Priority Goals	Person and/or Units Responsible
Goal 1: Support the Chancellor’s Goals as Stated in the State of the University Address. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Work with the Enrollment Management Council and other groups to help reach the enrollment goal of 30,000 students by 2017. To achieve the goal will require an increase of about 3.4% per year.</li> <li>b. Work with the Enrollment Management Council and other groups to help achieve the goal of a six-year graduation rate of 70% by 2017. The needed increase per year to achieve this goal is 1.7%.</li> <li>c. Encourage and participate in research funding activities to help ensure UNL reaches the goal of $300 million by 2017. The needed annual increase to achieve this goal is $25 million.</li> </ul> Progress to Date: We will continue working with the University Community to ensure progress towards the Chancellor's goals.	OVCSA – Juan N. Franco
Goal 2: Continue enhancements to MyRed. Progress to Date: Significant improve,emits have been made to MyRed, most notably the new face and functionality of the student portal.	OVCSA – Juan N. Franco
Goal 3: Continue project management of major new construction/renovation projects in such a manner as to ensure successful completion on time and within budgets. The projects include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. East Campus Recreation Facility – Campus Recreation</li> <li>b. Remodeling of Sapp Recreation Facility – Campus Recreation</li> <li>c. Outdoor Adventures Center – Campus Recreation</li> <li>d. Branding of City Union – NE Unions; Progress to Date - First phase of Branding is complete. Colors reflect the introduction of Scarlet and Cream.</li> <li>e. Breslow Ice Center – Campus Recreation</li> <li>f. Residence Halls on 18th and R St. – University Housing; Progress to Date - These are under construction, with first hall opening Fall 2013, the next hall opening Fall 2014</li> <li>g. Investigate the best approach to update/renovate Burr and Fedde residence halls – University Housing; Progress to Date - We have completed the study of costs to renovate Burr and Fedde Halls but have not yet decided to move forward on a project. This coming fall we will conduct a market study of demand (number of beds, recommended type of beds for East Campus housing.</li> <li>h. Continue with plans to replace the CPN Dining Facility – University Housing; Progress to Date - There has been no further progress on this project pending the Campus Mater Plan update project to be conducted this academic year.</li> </ul>	Campus Recreation – Stan Campbell NE Unions – Charlie Francis University Housing – Sue Gildersleeve
Goal 4: Develop and implement, within the parameters permitted by state and federal law, a Division comprehensive diversity pan that prepares our students to compete in a global society. Progress to Date: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. The Division’s comprehensive diversity plan is on schedule to be completed by the conclusion of summer 2012, with implementation to begin fall 2012.</li> <li>b. Collect data on the gender, race or ethnicity of Student Affairs’ employees to determine the effectiveness of division diversity efforts. Completed spring 2012</li> </ul>	JGMC – Andre Fortune

Goal 5: In collaboration with academic affairs, develop and implement curricular and co-curricular programs that foster student growth in personal and social responsibility.

- a. Collaborated with Center staff and NE Union personnel to remodel space designated as the Center for Civic Engagement.
- b. Received final approval from NU BOR and NE Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education for the Certificate for Civic Engagement.
- c. Through support provided by the Montana/Colorado Campus Compact and ServeNebraska, established a service scholars program offering 30+ UNL students the opportunity to serve 300 hours in exchange for a small stipend and a tuition voucher. Students are engaged in both curricular and co-curricular service activities including financial literacy, academic support and cross-cultural mentoring.
- d. In collaboration with residence assistants and Greek living unit representatives, implemented the “Show Your Red” character campaign among students residing in their respective living units. Program implementation was partially monitored through regularly meetings with the Vice Chancellor’s Character Council. At the suggestion of the Character Council, established “Franco’s List” a visible and public recognition of students of integrity.

OVCSA – Linda Major

Goal 6: Explore creative new sources of revenue while protecting existing budgets to aggressively pursue excellence. Progress to Date: Initial discussions among CSAD directors produced several suggestions for further investigation including, but not limited to, division-wide coordinated fund raising, increased communication with the NU foundation regarding fundable projects and division sponsored fee-based summer workshops and camps.
Goal 7: Continue the implementation of a comprehensive education program addressing alcohol use and other high risk behaviors. Progress to Date: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>d. In collaboration with the Nebraska Collegiate Consortium, developed, implemented and piloted a website specifically designed for parents of incoming students.</li> <li>e. In collaboration with members of the Lincoln College Partnership, participated in the National Collegiate Health Improvement Project sponsored by Dartmouth College. As a result, the following innovations have occurred: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Developed a sophisticated surveillance system allowing assigned staff weekly access to student self-report data, law enforcement citations and last drink data.</li> <li>-Collaborated with the Lincoln City Council, the Lincoln Police Department and the Lancaster County Health Department to develop and pass an ordinance requiring a permit of anyone selling or serving alcohol in the city of Lincoln. The permit is available upon completing of a certified training program.</li> <li>-Developed a yearlong campaign designed to educate students about the risks/benefits associated to high-risk behaviors. The campaign, titled “Fail to plan, plan to fail,” is scheduled for implementation prior to the 2012-13 academic year.</li> </ul> </li> <li>f. In collaboration with UHC Director, Jim Guest, and clinical psychology faculty member, Dennis McChargue, developed a plan to introduce screening and brief intervention in a health care setting.</li> <li>g. In collaboration with Linda Schwartzkopf, Jeff Beavers, Sharon Kerrigan, Matt Hecker, Dennis McChargue, Keith Zaborowski and Suzanne Forkner, developed a yearlong prevention/early intervention plan based on data collected and analyzed during the 2011-12 academic year.</li> </ul>	OVCSA – Linda Major
Goal 8: Continue to work on revising the student code of conduct. Progress to Date: The revision process has several phases. During the 2011-12 academic year, ASUN completed the initial portion of the revision process. In addition to updating the code, ASUN also reorganized the layout of the code to make it consistent with and complimentary to the Show Your Red character campaign. The process now moves to the Faculty Senate for their approval.	Dean of Students – Matt Hecker